

*You are invited to join the University of Kentucky for two events on
two days
with nearly 20
top equine researchers*

January 20

1 - 5 p.m., reception following

UK Equine Showcase

a program highlighting the young horse for those interested in learning results from the latest equine research at UK

January 21

8 a.m. - 5 p.m., lunch provided

3rd Annual Kentucky Breeders' Short Course

an in-depth equine reproductive program

---

LOCATION:

UK Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory Auditorium

REGISTRATION:

www.ca.uky.edu/gluck

UK Equine Showcase

Common infectious diseases of the young horse— DAVID HOROHOV

Cartilage development and maturation— JAMES MACLEOD

Building muscle in young horses— KRISTINE URSCHEL

Nutritional needs of the young horse— LAURIE LAWRENCE

Vaccination strategies and immunity in young horses— AMANDA ADAMS

Deworming strategies for the young horse— MARTIN NIELSEN

Pricing of young horses in the Thoroughbred industry — JILL STOWE

Breeders' Short Course

Pregnancy rates when breeding with natural mating or fresh, cooled, or frozen semen— ED SQUIRES

Causes of fertilization failures— BARRY BALL

Pregnancy losses during early gestation— BARRY BALL

Pregnancy losses during late pregnancy and diagnosis of placentitis— BARRY BALL

Factors affecting the incidence of dystocia— ED SQUIRES

Performance of foals from high-risk pregnancies— SYDNEY HUGHES

Endometrial biopsy as an indicator of uterine artery rupture— NEIL WILLIAMS

Effect of tall fescue on pregnant mares and how to contain fescue— KAREN MCDOWELL, WILLIAM WITT, RAY SMITH

Proper nutrition for rebreeding mares— LAURIE LAWRENCE

Practical biosecurity for horse farms— ROBERTA DWYER