

Barbara Earl wins second Horse Shoe Contest!

Barbara Earl wins NWAHA's second "Where's the Horse Shoe?" web site contest! Congratulations Barbara. Your NWAHA hat is in the mail.

For those of you that were looking, the horse shoe was posted next to the Christy Anderson Memorial Horse Show on the following page on the NWAHA web site: <http://www.nwha.com/shows.html>. It will remain there until Friday, April 1st when we will move it to a new location for the April contest.

Here's a "recap" of how the contest works:

Each month, you'll notice that this "exact" (see above) horse shoe is located "somewhere" on one of the NWAHA web pages. It may be on the members' only section or it may be in the regular pages of our web site of www.nwha.com. It won't always be easy to find. The NWAHA Office and webmaster will not give any clues! It will be futile to even ask. ☺ If you find it, shoot us an e-mail with the page you found it on and we'll enter you in a drawing for a free NWAHA hat or similar value NWAHA product/merchandise/gift. The location of the horse shoe will change as of the 1st of each month. We'll announce the location of the horse shoe online on or after the 25th. All e-mails received with the correct page by the 24th of the month will go into the drawing! The horseshoe will move to a new page on the 1st of the month and the contest will begin again. E-mail your findings to the NWAHA Office to asstexec@nwha.com
